What is authentic about my XR project

My project isn't just about showing a virtual forest — it's about helping people pause, breathe, and rediscover presence in a digital space.

If you let users slow down, explore at their own pace, and notice small details (like how light shifts or animals move), the design itself communicates authenticity. Just how life should be, do not forget to stop and smell the roses.

Environments

The XR experience unfolds in a sun-dappled forest, where the hiker steps off the trail into a tranquil clearing. Towering trees, rustling leaves, and gentle wildlife create a living, breathing world.
